

Free & Reduced Meals

National School Lunch Program will be providing a breakfast and lunch at no cost to each student eligible for a reduced-price breakfast or lunch. Maplewood Career Center will continue to certify students for free or reduced meals and will not collect money from reduced-price eligible students this 2024-2025 school year.

Direct Certification - Medicaid

The Ohio Department of Education, Office of Nutrition was approved for the Direct Certification with Medicaid Pilot Program. This means school year 2024-2025 direct certification matches may include Medicaid free and Medicaid reduced certifications in addition to SNAP free and OWF free the previous process provided. Note: Medicaid numbers cannot be accepted on meal applications. Medicaid information may only be accepted through the direct certification report that is received directly from the Ohio Department of Medicaid.
